Academic Year Experience – Student Agreement

As a student with approved admission to the Academic Year Experience Cohort in the Academic Housing program at DCC I understand that my on-campus housing is contingent on following the expectations.

- ☐ Week 1: Create a weekly schedule including classes, meals, studying, laundry, fun, self-care, etc.
- ☐ Week 1: Complete roommate agreement.
- ☐ Week 2: Create SMART goals.
- ☐ Week 3: Complete learning style assessment.
- ☐ Week 3: Revisit roommate agreement.
- ☐ Register for Dutchess Counseling through Timely-MD, use as needed.
 - o <https://timely.md/faq/dutchesscounseling/>
- ☐ Attend 3 hours a week of tutoring (in-person or online) or professor office hour visits.
 - o If tutoring is not needed, then peer study/tutoring hours in the lounge will be required.
- ☐ Attend bi-weekly check-ins with AYE coordinator.
- ☐ Attend 1 residence life program a month.
- ☐ Week 5, 10, & 15: Complete self-evaluation and review with AYE coordinator.
- ☐ There will be no guests during mid-terms and finals.
- ☐ Roommate requests will be considered contingent on their adherence to AYE guidelines.
- ☐ Guidelines are subject to change at the discretion of the Academic Housing Professional Staff.

My signature indicates that I have read and understand the AYE expectations and will put my best effort into my academic and personal success; knowing that failure to meet expectations will result in my removal from on campus housing at DCC Conklin Hall.
